

SUGAR'S SUBJECTS.

The Senate Discusses the Tariff Amendments.

Which Affect Their Favorite Commodity Sugar.

THEY NEEDED A REST.

Senators Become Weary and So Adjourned.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—The seventh week of the tariff debate in the senate began at 11 o'clock yesterday with a fair attendance on the floor. Two bills, one to pension the widow of Rear Admiral Donald MacNeal Fairfax at the rate of $100, and the other to increase the pension of the widow of Major General Doubleday to $100, were reported and placed on the calendar.

After some business of no general importance was dispatched the tariff bill was taken up. The question was on Mr. Aldrich's motion to make the duty on alum six-tenths instead of four-tenths of a cent ad valorem. Mr. Lodge opposed the amendment. Mr. Hale also spoke. Mr. Butler said speeches were being made merely to kill time, to which Mr. Chandler responded: "Better kill time than industries."

The amendment was tabled — 28 to 17.

Mr. Aldrich moved to substitute five-tenths for four-tenths.

Mr. Higgins, Republican, Delaware, replying to the insinuation of Mr. Butler, that the Republicans were engaged in a time killing contest, declared the Republicans were in no wise responsible for the delay. The Aldrich amendment was taken up. Mr. Platt, Republican, Connecticut, said that despite the fact that for years this chamber had rung with a Democratic denunciation of the sugar trust, the Democrats, save an excepting one, had agreed, so he understood, in caucus to vote for a prohibitive duty on refined sugars. Surely Democratic reformers must be hard driven when they were forced to swallow the words and opinions of years. Mr. Platt's observations on the sugar trust ruffled some of the Democrats and he was soon engaged in a controversy.

The discussion of the sugar schedule was adroitly diverted by Senator Vest into a debate about American wages. Finally Mr. Gallinger, Republican of New Hampshire, got the floor and proceeded to read, for the benefit of his political adversaries, the editorial opinions of some of the great Democratic dailies denouncing the surrender of Democratic principle made in the Jones amendments.

At the conclusion of Mr. Gallinger's remarks the Jones amendment, fixing the duty on home grown cane sugar at 20 per cent, was agreed to without division. The next Jones amendment, fixing the duty on carbonate of ammonia at 20 per cent; muriate of sal ammoniac at 10 per cent and sulphate of ammonia at 20 per cent.

The next finance committee amendment, fixing the duty on home grown cane suitable for decolorizing sugar at 20 per cent, was also agreed to.

Mr. Aldrich offered an amendment to the next paragraph to substitute 1 cent per pound on chalk and its preparations, for the duty of 20 per cent in the bill. This was defeated. It was then 5:50 o'clock, and Mr. Allison suggested an executive session, while Mr. Jones suggested the senate sit an hour longer. Mr. Harris, who had charge of the bill, arose and with cutting sarcasm rejected both suggestions.

"In view of the fact," said he with the triphammer deliberation so characteristic of him, "that the senate has only consumed one hour in the discussion of this article on which the eyes of the Republicans are fixed with such intense interest—the article of chalk, I think the United States senate should take a rest and I move the senate adjourn."

Accordingly at 5:55 the senate adjourned.

Retaliatory Duties.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—Senator Davis yesterday gave notice to an amendment to the tariff bill providing for retaliatory duties upon silks, velvets, plushes and laces and all manufactures of these articles and also upon dice, draughts, chessmen, billiard goods, dolls, toys, brandy and other spirits manufactured from grain, champagne and still wines, against countries imposing discriminating duties upon grain or its product or other agricultural productions exported from the United States.

Coxey's Army Moves Again.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—The commonwealth of Christ is now camped in historic Bladenburg, a village famous for duels years ago.

Train Stealers Sentenced.

HELENA, Mont., May 15.—Judge Knowles of the United States district court has disposed of the cases of 350 Coxeyites, who stole a Northern Pacific train April 24, and fled eastward until they were captured by United States troops at Forsythe. Hogan, the "general" in command of the army, was sentenced to six months in the county jail. The engineer and fireman, who ran the train, and the forty captains and lieutenants were given sixty days each in the same jail. The others will be brought into court in squads of forty, and, on pleading their word not to engage in any more such proceedings, the judge will let them loose.

Peter Jackson Scores Corbett.

PITTSBURG, Pa., May 15.—In a letter to the Pittsburgh Dispatch Peter Jackson, the colored pugilist, scores Corbett for refusing to give him a satisfactory answer as to the exact date on which he is willing to battle.

BRECKINRIDGE DOOMED.

The People of Lexington Take Out En Masse Against Him.

LEXINGTON, Ky., May 15.—The best people of Lexington and Fayette counties, including several hundred ladies, turned out yesterday to the anti-Breckinridge meeting at the opera house. There were no hoodlums present and the meeting from a standpoint of morality, was a tremendous success. The opera house was filled and 500 people were turned away. Professor J. W. McGarvey, an eminent minister of the Christian church, was the first speaker, and he showed Colonel Breckinridge up in no favorable light. He held that it would be a disgrace to the district, to the state and to the country to return such a man to congress, and closed his speech by a strong appeal to the young men to vote against him.

The other speaker was Judge M. J. Durham, who denied Colonel Breckinridge was the only man in the district who could represent the district in congress. The speeches were both well received and made a good impression.

Resolutions were adopted denouncing Breckinridge's morals and calling on the good people of the district to raise up in their might and vote against the silver-tongued persuader. But when Harry C. Clay got up and offered a resolution not only denouncing Breckinridge's morals, but asking that Senator J. C. S. Blackburn be asked to obtain leave of absence from the senate, and that he come home and from the rostrum speak against Breckinridge, the audience went wild. The cheering was deafening, and it was plain to any observer that the Breckinridge boom, started by the silver-tongued orator himself a little more than a week ago, was badly strained if not broken.

The following are the women's resolutions adopted:

Whereas, W. C. P. Breckinridge has authorized himself as a candidate for re-election to congress from Ashland district notwithstanding his confession under oath of fraudulent and dishonest practices and hypocrisies;

Resolved, First, that we, women of Lexington and Fayette counties, Ky., do solemnly protest against his nomination as the representative of this district.

Second—We believe that such an endorsement of W. C. P. Breckinridge at the polls would be a disgrace to Kentucky; a shame upon manhood an insult to womanhood, a sinful example to youth and a menace to both society and the home.

Third—We earnestly implore our fathers, husbands and brothers to wipe out the stain that W. C. P. Breckinridge has brought on the fair fame of the Ashland district.

The resolutions also passed by the men are similar, and they add one recommendation, the calling of county meetings by ladies in every county in the district.

REPUBLICAN CAUCUS.

No Definite Action Agreed on in Regard to the Tariff Fight.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—The Republican members of the senate were in caucus at Senator Sherman's house from 8 o'clock until 11:50 last night.

The caucus partook more of the nature of an informal conference than of a business meeting, and while it was called with the purpose of arriving at a conclusion as to the method to be pursued by the Republican party in the senate, it closed without eliciting anything in the way of a party declaration. There was no vote on any proposition whatever, and the proceedings consisted of a large number of speeches.

On general lines the greatest divergence of opinion was on the ability of the Republicans to beat the bill at all, and while there was no formal division which would permit of a counting, the caucus appeared to be about evenly divided in sentiment on this question.

A statement that Eastern senators were favorable to a continuation of the opposition on the lines which are now being observed, and that Western senators were opposed to any effort to secure delay, for delay's sake, would be in a general way correct, but there were exceptions on both sides.

There was much talk as to the general demerits and inconsistencies of the bill and some of the silver senators did not fail to call attention to the lack of sympathy which had been displayed by the Republican senators when the silver bill was before the senate last fall, and to intimate that they had no desire at the time to heap coals of fire on the heads of that element in the party at this time by doing kindness in return for what they termed inconsiderateness.

Some of the senators expressed the opinion at the close of the conference that another meeting of the minority party in the senate will be held at an early day.

Missouri Democrats Don't Dwell Together in Peace.

A Big Fight Likely at State Convention.

BLAND DETERMINED.

He Will Hold Out for a 16 to 1 Ratio.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 15.—Owing to the inability of the state central committee to complete the necessary preliminary arrangements, the program for to-day's convention was changed materially. The district caucuses which had been set for 9:30 a. m., were held at 11 instead, and the convention proper was called to order a noon instead of at 11 o'clock.

The offer for this change was practically the only thing the state central committee managed to do, although it met at 10:30 a. m. yesterday and stayed in session over an hour. The meeting was called to order by Chairman Maffitt and the roll call by Secretary Sam Cook developed the presence of all the members, except ex-Mayor Noonan of St. Louis, Harvey Salmon and General B. G. Boone of Clinton.

Mayor Noonan's absence caused a heap of trouble. His Democracy is unquestionable and, doubtless, to be absolutely sure his district was represented, finding himself unable to be here, he had carefully given two proxies. One of these was presented by Colonel William H. Phelps, the other by Captain Dan Able. Neither one of these gentlemen felt that he could conscientiously give way to the other, and so there was of necessity a stop in all the operations of the committee until Mayor Noonan could be heard from. The committee accordingly took a recess till 5:30 and meantime a telegraphic query was sent to Mr. Noonan. For some reason no reply came and the committee after waiting and waiting for nearly four hours finally adjourned till 9 o'clock this morning, after selecting these guardians of the official peace of the convention:

Doorkeeper—Frank Phillips. Assistants—J. J. Williams, A. J. Shockey, Dee Reese, James Collins, Thomas Walker, W. K. Bradbury, Frank Maguire, Marshall Baldwin, J. B. McGowan, Gus Jaizer and J. E. Fitzpatrick.

Sergeant-at-Arms—Thomas McGee. Assistants—Sergeant-at-Arms—Jas. A. Reed, Richard Newman, F. E. J. Dunn, E. C. B. Jenkins, M. Ross, John J. Rieger, Bayley Steele, Thomas Bidge and P. P. Shannon.

Unless Congressman Richard Bland experiences a change of heart, it is probable that all efforts looking toward harmony in to-day's Democratic state convention will come to naught. Mr. Bland arrived in the city yesterday morning. He came with jaws set firmly together, and a positive disinclination to talk for publication.

"I will not be interviewed," was his invariable response to questions put by newspaper men. But Mr. Bland had talked before he came here, and he has talked to intimates since he arrived. It is known that Mr. Bland expects to be a member of the committee on resolutions. He hopes to be its chairman, and he proposes that the committee shall report resolutions favoring the restoration of the silver coinage laws in force prior to the so-called demonetization act of 1873—coinage on a ratio of 16 to 1.

If such a report gets before the convention, and Bland's followers insist that it will, there will be fight.

Judge John W. Henry of this city and Colonel Griff Prather of St. Louis held a long consultation with Mr. Bland yesterday, and earnestly besought him to abandon his purpose to introduce, or favor in committee, a resolution which could only result in strife. Both of these gentlemen are silver men, but they can not see what good purpose can be served by attacking the platform upon which President Cleveland and Mr. Bland himself were elected. "Silver Dick" was obstinate, however, but positively refused to recede from his position.

Riot in Kelly's Army.

OTTUMWA, Iowa, May 15.—There was a small riot at Kelly's camp last evening. The mayor of Ottumwa hired and paid for grounds for the army to camp on. When the men arrived the owner demanded an admission of ten cents to enter. After a number had paid Kelly arrived and demanded that it be stopped. Trouble followed and a free fight was in progress when the mayor arrived and decided in Kelly's favor.

Largest Gas Well on Earth.

TOLEDO, Ohio, May 15.—The largest gas well in the Ohio or in the Indiana fields was drilled on the Wallace farm three miles west of Fostoria yesterday. It came in at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon and when the tools were thrown out the workmen had to run for their lives. The drill stem and rope were thrown fully 500 feet. The well is estimated at 50,000,000 feet of gas per day, the largest well on earth.

Dying From Remorse.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, May 15.—The chances that Father Dominick O'Grady, who shot Mary Gilmartin on the street on April 25, will ever suffer the legal penalty of his crime, are very remote. The man seems to be dying from remorse. He has lost all interest in life, and is living in a semi-starving state.

AFTER THE TAYLORS.

Four Counties Now Engaged in the Man Hunt for the Meeks Murderers.

MILAN, Mo., May 15.—The hot chase after the Taylor boys continues with impetus and at present there seems to be no inclination for abating the pursuit. Everything now looks encouraging for their capture. Couriers have been dispatched and received here during the past twenty-four hours, giving details of the pursuers, while telephones and telegraph wires have been active. All Linn, Sullivan, Macon and Adams counties are out with possees, hot on the trail of the foul murderers, dissatisfied with anything but capture, and capture, as the Taylors know, has a potent meaning.

The already heinous crime has developed even into more sensational horrors, which seems almost impossible, in the fact that the murdered Mrs. Meeks was in a delicate way and could have given birth to a child in a few months. This has caused even more lion-like vengeance among the people.

Yesterday afternoon the two fleeing murderers were seen in Macon county seven miles west of La Plata. They were seen by a party who knew them, and the report that they are seven miles out between there and Elmer is confirmed from another source. They are in the Chariton river hills and they have formerly bought, drove and fed cattle in that vicinity and know the ground, and it will be hard to capture them.

The two Taylors, it is reliably stated, took all the way from $30,000 to $60,000 from the Browning bank, in which one of them was cashier, after the murder was committed.

WAS ONLY SICK,
But Judge Ensminger Was Satisfied That George Harris Was Drunk.

George Harris belongs to the class known as "tramps," and he has pulverized many obstinate rocks for the city. He has always been "going to leave town," but he never has gone, and last night Officer Jenkins found him lying by the Union Pacific track under a box car, dead drunk. The patrol wagon was called and Harris taken to the station and locked up.

"I was only sick," he said this morning, and I laid down because I couldn't go any farther. I hadn't had anything to drink at all." His story was not believed and he was fined $15. He left the court room muttering oaths.

Deafness Cannot be Cured.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.
